DON'T GET TOWED!

Avoid tickets and towing! Sign up for Winter Text Alerts

If you are parked overnight on city streets or in the wrong location in a designated overnight parking area, you will be fined $50. If your vehicle needs to be relocated due to snow operations, you will be fined an additional $125 and you will have to find your vehicle.
