11. ACTION ITEM: Consideration of options allowing scooters in the Skate Park - Special Events Manager Julian Tyo

Mayor Neil Bradshaw advised he has met with Events Manager Julian Tyo, Sarah Uhlenhopp, Andrew Gilbert and David Kelso regarding the use of the Skate Park. He was very pleased with the way in which they wanted to find a solution for our community and have all agreed to allow scooters from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. This seemed to work with all groups and all parties. Staff will be working with the same group to come up with boards for best practices to be placed in the skatepark. Mayor Neil Bradshaw asked Council for approval of these hours and if approved, new signs will go up immediately.

Councilor Jim Slanetz thinks this is a good compromise and is pleased that that it is agreed upon by a group of stakeholders stating, it is a good starting point and good balance. Councilor Michael David agrees with Jim Slanetz and is in support. He thanked the public for getting together with Mayor Bradshaw and coming up with this solution. Council President Amanda Breen is with this solution. Councilor Courtney Hamilton is pleased that the scooter community was represented. Mayor Bradshaw advised that a temporary sign will be put up tomorrow with council approval. Courtney Hamilton appreciates the time and effort the staff has put into this.

Council approved.
