Project Name: Project Description:	Zoning Code Interpretation: Nonconforming Building Pad within Mountain Overlay The Planning and Zoning Commission will hold a public meeting to review, hear public input, and consider a zoning code interpretation that could permit the construction of a new home at 691 N Spruce Avenue to be placed on an existing nonconforming building pad on a hillside with 25% or greater slope within the Mountain Overlay Zoning District. Pursuant Ketchum Municipal Code §16.04.020, new buildings must be constructed in areas that have less than 25% slope. Development is prohibited on hillsides with 25% or greater slope. The Mountain Overlay was established in 1989 through the City’s adoption of Ordinance No. 502. Existing homes within the Mountain Overlay constructed prior to 1989 may not comply with current hillside development standards. These buildings are considered to be non-conforming and may remain in place. Under Ketchum Municipal Code, if a non-conforming building is demolished, the new building must comply will all current development standards. The Planning and Zoning Commission will consider whether or not a new building may be constructed on a non-conforming building pad that is located on a hillside with 25% or greater slope within the Mountain Overlay Zoning District.
